

Hull Storytellers

Privacy notice

We collect and store some of your details, eg name & email address, contact telephone number, to let you know about things like event dates, social events and planning meetings.

We may sometimes collect other types of data specifically for targeting events and funding applications. This could include postcode, age, gender, and ethnicity. This data will be kept separate from other identifying factors.

The data is used so that Hull Storytellers can organise and run our activities.

The data will not be used for anything else without your specific consent for that use.

We use the services of Google drive to store and process your data. We will never give your data to third parties for that third party to use.

We check what data we have on people every two years and remove it if we no longer need it.

You can ask to view, update or correct any data we hold on you. You can also ask that we stop using your data or that we erase it. To request any of these, please contact the Data Protection Officer by email who will respond within one month.
